PLMR Policy Hub at Labour Party Conference 2026

PLMR is delighted to be bringing the PLMR Policy Hub back to Labour Party Conference for 2026.

Taking place in Liverpool between Sunday 27th and Wednesday 30th September 2026, Conference will provide a vital opportunity to engage with ministers and influential MPs across the Labour Party.

Our PLMR Policy Hub, in the secure zone at the heart of the Conference on main arena floor of the ACC, will host a range of panels, receptions, roundtables and drop-ins throughout Labour's time in Liverpool.

Last year we were pleased to welcome many ministers, MPs, business leaders and senior policymakers to our hub for a discussion about key issues including skills, housing and health.

To be a part of the debate, raise your profile, and get your voice heard by the party of government, please do get in touch with PLMR's Conference team at info@plmr.co.uk

To give you a flavour of the digital team capabilities, you can watch the highlights package made for our Opportunity Mission Reception at last year's conference here.

Engaging at other party conferences:

PLMR's consultants will be on hand at all of the major party conferences this year and working with each party we are able to deliver events and receptions at every conference.

Our team can maximise your attendance at party conferences by providing tailored agendas, access to private receptions, and securing 1-2-1 briefings with MPs and policymakers. Our team can also provide comprehensive 'on-the-ground' support and summaries of key discussions if you are not able to attend.
